

Modern art, a broad movement starting in the late 19th century, encompasses many different techniques and styles. From Impressionism and Cubism to Dada and Abstract Expressionism, artists like Pablo Picasso, Frida Kahlo, and Jackson Pollock challenged conventional techniques and perceptions, reshaping the art landscape.